

Research and Innovation

Course level: Master (M1)

Track(s): CPS2

ECTS Credits: 3

Course instructors: Pierre Maret, Olivier Boissier

Education period: 1st semester

Language of instruction: English

Expected prior-knowledge: None

Aim and learning outcomes: The students will have an understanding on how research works, what is the research community, who are the types of actors and institutions, how the publication process works, how research outcomes are valorized. The students will also learn how to analyze a research paper.

Keywords: research processes, actors of research, conference, journal, research community

Syllabus: Research institutions; The actors of research ; Processes of research ; Research papers reading and writing

Organisation and timetable: Lectures/tutorial (20h).

Form(s) of Assessment: 1 written exam (1h)

Literature and study materials:

Additional information/Contacts: Pierre Maret, Université Jean Monnet